Registered Charity No. 1067313 · VAA Registration No. SC386048 · Company No. 03344762
Registered as Coram Intercountry Adoption Centre

1. Background

Coram IAC, (registered as Coram Intercountry Adoption Centre) is a charity, limited company and not for profit organisation. For the purposes of this document and operationally we have been known as 'Coram IAC' from the 3rd July 2023, following our membership of the Coram Group of charities.

IAC was established in 1997 and was formerly a project funded by the Department of Health from 1992. The agency was registered as an Adoption Support Agency in March 2006 and since 2009 has been a registered Voluntary Adoption Agency providing intercountry and domestic adoption services. Domestic adoption services form a small but important part of our service portfolio as a twin tracking option for some approved prospective intercountry adopters or for those wishing to adopt again. We are regulated by Ofsted, the inspectorate for social care, and the Intercountry Adoption Team at the Department for Education, the Central Authority for Adoption in England and Wales.

Coram IAC is unique in the UK as we are the only adoption agency also accredited abroad by Central Adoption Authorities. These partnerships are known as Coram IAC's Country Programmes.

- In 2011, IAC was enlisted by the Central Adoption Resource Authority (CARA), India, as an Authorised Foreign Adoption Agency. This was most recently renewed in 2022.
- In 2012 IAC was accredited by the Intercountry Adoption Board (ICAB) of the Philippines. This was reviewed in 2023.
- In 2016 IAC entered into a working agreement and partnership with a charitable adoption agency in Durban, South Africa. This partnership remains active. There will be a review of the programme in 2025.

We have previously been accredited by the central authorities in China for special needs children and Kazakhstan, both programmes closed in 2023; and we had a working agreement with a partner adoption agency in Bulgaria but due to lack of activity has been closed.

In 2017, through DfE funding, an Outbound Permanence Service was established to advise local authorities on care planning for children leaving the country on permanence orders. This service successfully transferred to Coram BAAF in July 2023, when we joined the Coram Group and is now included in their subscription service to local authorities, providing a much needed resource across the .

Coram IAC is also part of the Regional Adoption Agency programme in England as the lead agency for the Intercountry Regional Adoption Agency (ICRAA) which was launched in 2017. For this arrangement Coram IAC works in collaboration with other voluntary adoption agencies: Adoption Matters, ARC Adoption NE, Nugent Adoption and CCS Adoption, enabling the local delivery of our services.

Where there is a service level agreement, Coram IAC provides a full range of adoption services to anyone in England wishing to adopt from abroad, and advice and support to subscribers in Wales.

This document sets out the Statement of Purpose of IAC, as required by the Voluntary Adoption Agencies and the Adoption Agencies (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2003 and the Voluntary Adoption Agencies (Amendment) Regulations 2005.

This document is reviewed at least annually and approved by Coram IAC's Board of Trustees, who are responsible for the governance of the charity.

6. Values which underpin the Service

Coram IAC fully embraces the values statement below, contained in the National Minimum Standards (July 2014).

Values – children

- The child's welfare, safety and needs are at the centre of the adoption process.
- Adopted children should have an enjoyable childhood, and benefit from excellent parenting and education, enjoying a wide range of opportunities to develop their talents and skills leading to a successful adult life.
- Children are entitled to grow up as part of a loving family that can meet their developmental needs during childhood and beyond.
- Children's wishes and feelings are important and will be actively sought and fully considered at all stages of the adoption process.

- Delays should be avoided as they can have a severe impact on the health and development of the children waiting to be adopted.
- A sense of identity is important to a child's wellbeing. To help children develop this, their ethnic origin, cultural background, religion, language and sexuality need to be properly recognised and positively valued and promoted, as well as their birth heritage and history.
- The particular needs of disabled children and children with complex needs will be fully recognised and taken into account.
- Where a child cannot be cared for in a suitable manner in their own country, intercountry adoption may be considered as an alternative means of providing a permanent family.
- Children, birth parents/guardians and families and adoptive parents and families will be valued and respected.
- A genuine partnership between all those involved in adoption is essential for the National Minimum Standards to deliver the best outcomes for children; this includes the Government, Local Government, other Statutory Agencies, Voluntary Adoption Agencies and Adoption Support Agencies.

Values – adopted adults and birth relatives

- Adoption is an evolving life-long process for all those involved – adopted adults and birth and adoptive relatives. The fundamental issues raised by adoption may reverberate and resurface at different times and stages throughout an individual's life.
- Adopted people should have access to information and services to enable them to address adoption relation matters throughout their life.
- Agencies have a duty to provide services that considers the welfare of all parties involved and should consider the implications of decisions and actions for everyone involved.
- Agencies should seek to work in partnership with all parties involved, taking account of their views and wishes in decision-making.
- Agencies should acknowledge differences in people's circumstances and establish policies that provide non-discriminatory services.
- Adopted adults have their adoptive identity safeguarded and the right to decide whether to be involved in contact or communication with birth family members.

7. Coram IAC's Mission Statement

Coram IAC's mission is to place children from all parts of the world, both in the UK and overseas, in loving families and to work in a fair, transparent, and professional manner with individuals who seek our professional services.

8. Aims and Objectives

Coram IAC aims to ensure that children who are unable to live with their birth families be that in another country or in the UK, grow up in a safe and nurturing family where they can develop to their full potential. The Agency seeks to do this by:

- 1) Providing high quality intercountry and domestic adoption services for prospective adopters and their families and friends, established adoptive families, adopted people and birth relatives, and nominated guardians.
- 2) Working in a way that is professional, non-judgemental, non-discriminatory and anti-racist, to ensure that all children and families that we work with, as well as colleagues, are respected, understood and valued.
- 3) Ensuring that the intake of both intercountry and domestic adopters reflects the needs of children waiting in the UK or in the States of origin for an intercountry adoption placement and complies with the eligibility criteria both domestically and in the State of origin.
- 4) Ensuring that the information service and advice lines are available and supported by a sound information database and appropriately qualified and experienced advisors and facilitators.
- 5) Offering a domestic adoption programme that seeks to find families for children in the UK who might otherwise wait the longest for a placement.
- 6) Working in partnership with regional adoption agencies, local authorities and voluntary adoption agencies, through contracts and service level agreements to provide specialist preparation and assessment for prospective intercountry adopters, those who are adopting again and kinship intercountry adopters and specialist support to those adopting from countries where this agency is accredited to offer such services.

- 7) Ensuring that the potential life-long needs of children are understood, and that the ethnic, cultural, religious, and linguistic heritage of the children is fully recognised and positively valued.
- 8) Providing support to local authorities and regional adoption agencies' adoption professionals by annual subscription through a range of dedicated services where children are entering or leaving the UK through adoption or permanence arrangements. Each subscribing local authority has access to the Advice Lines, a facility to download publications from the dedicated subscriber pages on IAC's website; a Practitioners' Network which meets to provide for discussion, debate and peer support; and training programmes for adoption professionals and adoption panel members (including legal and medical advisors). Local authorities subscribing to services where the UK is the receiving State also receive a regular bulletin.
- 9) Promoting the highest standards of adoption practice, informed by the outcomes of research, by practice wisdom, by the perspectives of all parties to the adoption circle and by training which the Agency provides for its staff. Independent Social Workers are also encouraged and supported in their ongoing learning.
- 10) Lobbying for legislative change, specifically in relation to intercountry adoption, and active involvement in the consultation process of government departments.
- 11) Ensuring that the need to keep all children safe is at the core of everything that we do. Where there are concerns reported we follow our Safeguarding and Protecting Children Policy, which is based on guidance issued in 'Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018'.
